ExhibitRecruiter Launches New Web Site

11/17/2011 - ExhibitRecruiter, the Atlanta-based recruitment agency for 3D marketing firms that design, produce, execute and manage trade show exhibits, corporate events, brand environments, mobile marketing tours and retail environments has launched a new Web site.

According to Principal, Cal Cook, "We are thrilled to finally launch our new site that is cutting edge, using some of the latest technology available. Although the new site has a different look and feel, users will find the same straightforward functionality is still there, but in an easier to use format."

Exclusive features like ExhibitRecruiter's Compensation Survey, job postings and job search help are now much easier to navigate. New features like Live Chat and SMS Text connectivity add enhanced service to for our Web site visitors.

About ExhibitRecruiter

Founded in 1998, ExhibitRecruiter is a premier search and advisory firm in the corporate identity and branding markets. ExhibitRecruiter's clients design, produce, execute and manage experience marketing solutions that facilitate attraction and engagement between their clients and their clients' target audiences. Companies count on their client's solutions to help them increase sales, introduce new products, and build their brands. ExhibitRecruiter's team focuses exclusively on conducting searches to identify top performing executive, sales, operations, creative and project support professionals with expertise in the trade show exhibits, museum exhibitions, retail environments, event marketing, marketing environments and corporate event marketer industries. The agency works with experiential marketing firms throughout North America and is emerging in the U.K. markets. As one of the only international specialized search firms focusing exclusively in the corporate identity and branding sector, ExhibitRecruiter continues to help businesses find the talent they need, while assisting job seekers in finding the perfect fit in their employment.
